BOND APPLICATION GUIDELINES

- 1) Bond Serial No - assigned by the surety company
- 2) CHB Name - Page & Jones, Inc.
- 3) Importer Name - verify that the name used on the bond application is the same name used with your Internal Revenue Service number
- 4) Importer No - Internal Revenue Service, Social Security, or Customs assigned number. For IRS number use the format 12-345678900, the last two digits should always be 00 unless you are adding a division to an existing bond. For Social Security number, use the format 123-45-6789 and make sure that the importer name is the individual's first and last name. If they have a DBA name, please include it in the appropriate field. Customs assigned number should be in the format 071001-00001, the first two digits are the year it was issued, the next four digits is the port that issued the number, and the last five digits are random numbers issued by CBP.
- 5) Address – ensure the number and address are being reported as the correct mailing address. CBP uses the source www.usps.com for verification and will reject any bond application with incorrect information.
- 6) Description of Merchandise - describe the merchandise being entered with the same description as imported on the Foreign Commercial Invoice with the country of origin for each item. Merchandise subject to anti-dumping requires collateral in order for your application to be processed. Acceptable forms of collateral are Letters of Credit issued by a U. S. Bank who is a member of FDIC, or confirmed by U. S. banks member of the FDIC, and must be rated with 3 stars or better on www.bankrate.com. Certified checks, also known as a Cashier's check, and wire transfers are also accepted. Please visit: <https://aceservices.cbp.dhs.gov/adcvdweb> for more information on Anti-dumping
- 7) Last Calendar Year/Estimated Next Calendar Year-list the merchandise, value and number of entries made in the last calendar year. You may estimate the next Calendar year totals.
- 8) Type Bond Requested - 19CFR 113.62 CBP requires a minimum of a $50,000. Bond for Continuous bond(s) and the amount of the bond is dependent upon the number of entry(s) from the previous year. Bonds that are $100,000 and greater require financial statements for underwriting. The statements should be current (no more than one year old), must include a profit and loss statement, and a complete balance sheet.
- 9) District where bond is to be filed – assigned by the surety company
